"Share Your Favorite Book"

Bring a favorite book or list of books that your students, staff, and you love reading!

8:30 AM Doug Johnson

"E-Books, E-Kids, E-Flat! Three Trends Schools & Libraries Will Ignore at Their Peril"

This workshop explores three major changes being evidenced today: 1) the prevalence of ubiquitous digital information sources, 2) the defined attributes of a <sup>3</sup>Net Generation<sup>2</sup>, and 3) the rise of a global economy. Each change will be discussed along with strategies that schools and educators can use to stay relevant in their students' lives. For warned is for armed!

11:30-12:30 Lunch Served On-Campus

12:30 PM Doug Johnson

"Dipping One's Toes in the Social Networking Stream: A Short Introduction to Blogs, Feeds, Wikis and other 2.0 Tools"

Call it Web 2.0, the Social Web, or the Read/Write Web, how people use the Internet, especially young ones, has changed dramatically over the past few years. This workshop will introduce and give hands on experience with the most popular tools of Web 2.0 including blogs, wikis, rss feeds, and content sharing sites. Examples of how educators are making use of these tools to aid student learning will be included.

2:30 PM TCSD #1 Library Media Staff

"Cool New Tech Tools & Resources to WOW Your Staff"

Explore a wide variety of technology tools, many of which are free (open source), that you can use to dazzle your teaching staff. Some are time savers—some are free duplications of brand name software. Others will provide free resource locations for music, photos, video clips, etc. You'll also be introduced to the multimedia world of United Streaming's resource bank of images & video clips.

4:00 PM Evaluation 1 UW Graduate Credit or PTSB CEU credit available
